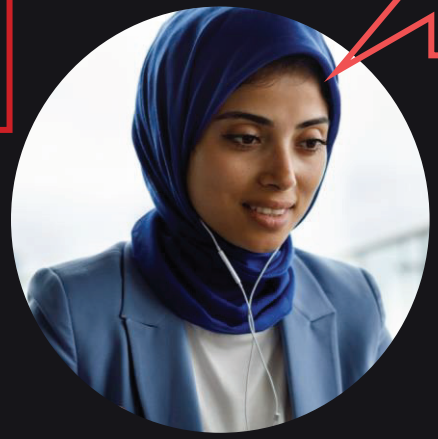
Possible Scenarios

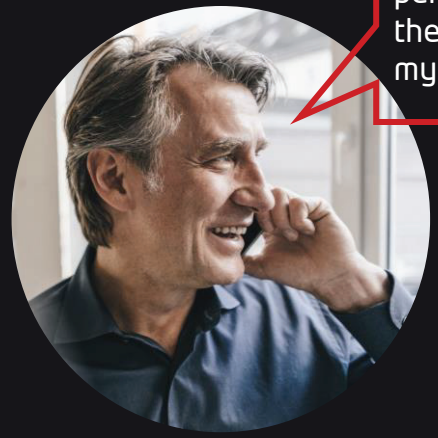
I have finished all my minutes allowances and now can't use my mobile.
I need to make urgent calls.



I need to call my home country, but my company mobile plan doesn't allow international calls.

I want to use mParking, but my company mobile plan is not allowing me!

I am going on holiday to a foreign destination but the company is not allowing me to subscribe to Roaming Add-on or is not allowing me to use the office mobile while roaming due to extra billing.



I don't want to carry two numbers for personal and office use. Also, while using the office mobile, I don't want t o show my personal calls on company bills.
